FOREWORD

The current issue of the "Statistical Hand Book, Meghalaya, 1992" is the eleventh in the series. It presents a concise factual account of the Socio-Economic Trend in the State based on currently available data. An earnest attempt has been made to quicken the process of publishing the current issue as compared to the release of past issues.

Data presented in this publication have been collected from various Government Departments, Public Bodies and also from published documents brought out by recognised Institutions.

The generous co-operation extended by various Government Departments, Public Bodies as well as Non-Government Agencies in making available the required Statistical information for this publication is gratefully acknowledged.

Suggestions for the qualitative improvement of the future issues are most welcome.

Shillong,
the 27th January, 1993.
